OUR DEPARTMENT:

The 'Department of English' was established as one of the pioneer departments since the inception of the institution in 1944. It set out its journey with the first principal of JSS college, the late Shri B.M. Shrikanthayya, 'Kannada Karva', 'poets' poet' happened to be the first HOD of English also. Later, the department maintained the literary grandeur under many intellectual giants like Prof. G.A.Kulkarni, Prof.R.K.Koppar, Prof. Malati Pattanshetty and the like who led it to the heights of pride. The current staff is self-driven to maintain its past glory with consistent efforts. Many students of the department brought laurels in the form of gold medals, ranks, rewards, cash prizes etc. some of them proved their mettle in teaching, administration, media and the like.

Besides teaching, the department also conducts seminars, debates, fests, quiz competitions, special lectures, calligraphy courses and spoken English etc. Above all, it imparts the quality education of English language and literature with the great encouragement by the management and the faculty.

About the E-Workshop:

"Personal development – the never ending chance to improve not only yourself but also attract opportunities and affect others." Jim Rohn

Life isn't static. It flows with mighty pace with multiple changes. Man is often tested by ample challenges to prove his competency. Being sensible and poised is need of an hour in the current world of tense. The inter-personal skill, social responsibility, emotional quotient, leadership quality, soft skill and good communication skill are prerequisites for one's sound personality. Moreover, personality development comprises self-awareness, self-dignity, identity, self-concept, maturity of mind. In short, personality development is a sum of some awesome qualities.

Communication skill is an essential technique to cope with the present competitive world. As English has become a global language, appropriate English communication equips us in better position. It not only assures employability but also empowers our personality.

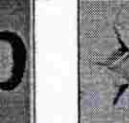

Personality development is an integral part of man's social progress. This workshop will take you through the hues of effective communication skills. As today's world is solely based on technology. One needs to absorb the cognitive as well as soft skills to be successful in life.
