Title of Best Practice I

Blood Donation and Blood group Detection

1. Goal: To save the life of Patients who need blood in time.
2. The context: In and around Dharwad district many hospitals are located which need blood in time for many patients who are admitted with different health issues. Blood banks are few which are unable to handle the demand of blood in time.
3. The practice: On regular basis on the occasion of birthday celebration of Red cross day, Mahatma Gandhi Jayanthi and during other occasions we regularly conduct the camp where the blood group detection of all the students is carried out and also Blood is collected from students and staff who are willing to donate the blood voluntarily and it is arranged to preserve in the near by blood bank and other blood banks in dharwad district, so that it is made available for the patients who avail it in time.
4. Evidence of success: By practicing this system many poor and needy patients availed it in emergency.
5. Problems encountered and resources required: No problems encountered as such.
6. Notes: NSS, NCC and Red Cross unit of our institution all the activities are conducted in a very disciplined manner and staff members of these associations co-ordinate with the local hospitals including government hospital and work regularly to achieve the goal.

Best Practice II

Title of the Practice: Special Library for Competitive Examinations

The context that required the initiation of the practice:

Management has planned and established new special library to provide opportunity to the students in the campus. UG and PG students who are aspirants of competitive examinations like UPSC, KAS, and IAS etc. were unable to find proper library with sufficient books to read. In view of that management has planned a common platform for these students to prepare for these competitive examinations in systematic way. Availability of space, purchase of costly books and reading atmosphere are basic needs of aspirants. Specially the students coming from rural background and poor family.

Objectives of the practice:

- To facilitate the students UG and PG who actually need this opportunity to come over easily by this platform.
- Specially the students coming from rural background and poor family who could not afford this kind facility.
- To provide competitive environment in the campus.
- To give exposure to competitive world.
